

Bruce S. Kaniewski, AICP

Résumé

Background and Philosophy

- Guide sustainable community development in municipalities of various sizes. Equally accomplished working with large new developments or in-fill projects, with a large project team or private citizens.
- Professional philosophy of always working toward the best interest of the community through a balance of quality homes, jobs and surroundings.
- Listen to the thoughts and ideas of stakeholders and then use experience and expertise to recommend positive strategies for community development. Municipal planning is a team effort.

Main Areas of Expertise

- Site Plan and Subdivision Review
- Developer Negotiations
- Neighborhood and Corridor Planning
- Comprehensive and Land Use Planning
- Zoning, Subdivision and Urban Design Standards

Current Clients

- Village of Mukwonago
- Village of Dousman
- Village of Merton

Professional History

- President, BK Planning Strategies; 2010-Present
- Planning Director, Municipal Economics & Planning (Ruekert/Mielke); 2001-2010
- Planning and Zoning Administrator, City of Franklin, WI; 1990-2001
- City Planner, City of Wheaton, IL; 1987-1990
- Village Planner, Village of Palatine, IL; 1983-1987

Education

- Member of American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP) since 1991; Certification maintained with minimum 32 Continuing Education Credits every two years
- University of Wisconsin—Milwaukee, Masters of Urban Planning; 1983
- University of Wisconsin—Platteville, Bachelor of Science in Geography with City and Regional Planning Emphasis; 1979